Chapter 1 by SAMANTHA REINER

Watching myself in my mirror I saw my reflection look back at me. I knew I will never be pretty has all the popular girls. Just why can't I be like them. I looked out the window to see my mother and baby brother having a fit. I grabbed my bag and head out my door. I walked pass my dad, who was in his room like always. e hasn't talked to me since a week. I wondered down stairs to find only a apple on the table. I grabbed it and took a bite, guess this is my breakfast.

I slammed the door. And heard my father yell "DON'T SLAM THAT DOOR!" then there was silence. I giggle sometimes I love to annoy him. I ran to the car and told my brother to get in the back seat. Of course he started crying again. He sometimes loves to annoy me.
